

Murray Symphony News

News and information for January 19 to January 26

Edition 3

♪ The security on the Google email (contact@murraysymphony.net) has been updated and anything we send may go to your spam unless you have put this address as one of your contacts. Check your spam if you have not been getting our emails.

♪ The rehearsal on January 19 was for strings only but we had Leon and Chad play their concertos with us. This is going to be a great concert, we hope the winds will feel comfortable playing with us.

♪ Our next Concert

We are creating a survey for the group to see who would be willing to play. Look for it in your email. We will probably wear masks when not playing. There will be a final decision made by February 9. Hopefully the Omicron will have peaked and we will have a marked decrease in cases.

♪ Board meeting

We had a board meeting after rehearsal. We are moving ahead with our search for a new Music Director. We are concerned with the health and safety of our members. Let us know your concerns and suggestions for rehearsals.

Becky Held has asked for us to find someone new to write our grants. She explained to us the process and Amanda Brown is going to take the lead on finding a new grant writer.

♪ Elections this year

This May at the general meeting we will not only be voting on a new music director, we will be voting on new board members. It is the president and the treasurer who are up for election, or re-election. Be thinking about who you might like to have on the board. You can either volunteer or nominate someone else or re-elect the people currently on the board.

The board meets on the Third Wednesday of every month right after rehearsal. Our next meeting will be January 19 right after rehearsal. All are welcome to attend. Please let us know if you have an issue to discuss.